Ronsdale Press, Canada, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 188 x 134 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Based on a true story, this charming juvenile novel tells of how eleven-year-old Rosie and her grandmother Bubba Sarah arrive in Toronto from Russia after fleeing one of the purges that carried away Rosie s mother, a famous Russian dancer. To help make ends meet, Rosie works in Yitzy s factory sewing velvet capes for Eatons, all the while dreaming of making such a cape from scraps, and wearing it to Toronto s Royal Alexandra Theatre. Although Yitzy warns Rosie, don t steal the scraps, she cannot resist, and each evening when she dumps the scraps in the garbage, she hides the best ones in her apron. This tale provides a wonderful insight into how an immigrant child survives with her values and dreams intact despite the harsh working conditions of a 1921 garment factory. A touching story of heartbreak and joy, delicately stitched together into a young girl s dream. --Cathy Beveridge, author of Chaos in Halifax.
