

Croquis

By E S Coakley

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The backstory of the Bible blazes to life in Croquis by E.S. Coakley. Man has not yet been created and God the Son is lonely with just His creatures, the angels, and the dinosaurs. But when He asks God the Father for permission to create Man, a family rift occurs. God the Father knows if Man is created, His Son will pay the ultimate price--sacrificing Himself for Man's sins. Torn between His Son's loneliness and His own future heartbreak, God the Father is forced to make an agonizing decision. Meanwhile, Lucifer becomes insanely jealous of God the Son and of the humans He desires to create, and he plots to lead a rebellion against God and set up a new kingdom of his own. A very new, charming, and different look at the backstory of Creation from a talented author you won't ever forget.
