He is thoroughly at home in any society, and being a man of broad education and pleasing address, is a welcome guest in any circle where people of broad views are to be found. Mr. Cram is a member of the Tammany Society, Knickerbocker, Metropolitan and Democratic Clubs. PETER F. MEYER, COMMISSIONER OF DOCKS AND FERRIES. Peter F. Meyer was born in New York in 1848. He received a limited school education, but a mental endowment of common sense, keen perception and wide observation, which he has always used to the best advantage, has made him one of the best posted men of affairs in the city. Mr. Meyer began life seriously as a Central Park water boy at forty cents a day. His spirit was too fine for that of a water boy, however, and he went to work for the Mercantile Exchange at more than double the salary he had been receiving. In 1862 Mr. Meyer started in the real estate business at No. 111 Broadway, and has remained there since. At the above address he has conducted some of the largest real estate sales in this country. This has given him a wide prestige in his field, and he is regarded to-day as one of the finest judges of real estate values in the State. Among the sales of real estate disposed of through Mr. Meyer are the Jumel estate, which took seven days to sell, the...
