A quaint, Greek village turns a cold, if not openly hostile, shoulder to physician Allie Alexander as she spurns city life for a ramshackle medical clinic. High-fashion model Natalia Pappas leaves the only home she's ever known-nestled among lush green Grecian hills-to pursue her career on the mean streets of New York City. And then there's Martha Pappas, who finds herself ready at last to open her shop, Once Upon a Time, only to find a long-awaited love just beyond the door step.Editorial ReviewsImagine for a momentthree dream-laden, hope-filled women leave familiar ports for fairy-tale adventures, where love and faith collide.
