Of Golden Toads and Serpents Roads

By Paul Freed

Texas A M University Press, United States, 2003. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 234 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This volume invites readers to Join a seasoned researcher as he goes herping. After nearly twenty years of traveling around the globe searching for toads, frogs, salamanders, snakes, lizards, and turtles, herpetologist Paul Freed pauses to tell stories of his adventures finding and collecting reptiles and amphibians from the tropics of Costa Rica to the deserts of Namibia. Whether confronting scorpions, beefworms, army ants, or venomous snakes. Freed conveys a contagious enthusiasm for the outdoors and all that lives in it. With humor and gratitude, he embraces both the hardships and the rewards of being in the field. His tales of discovery are also travel stories, and by sharing the experiences of his trips across the globe - the successful ones and those not so successful - Freed encourages the adventurer in all of us. As he ponders on a writhing knot of golden toads - a species that may now be extinct - or the twitching blue tail broken from a girdled lizard. Freed introduces conservation issues particular to specific locales and those shared across the...
