Parting Shots IT 7 E are certain to have more fighting. / say it, who know the borders since my childhood and, I repeat, our men will mow their grass even if ten thousand Albanians are there to stop them. Do not hurry away just when everything looks so promising. It is the adjutant pleading with me to stay at least another week; and force of circumstances has compelled me to declare that to-morrow I must leave the Vassovid for more peaceful regions. We are sitting, as is our wont every evening, round a little table before the han, with the inevitable bottle of raid before us. The street is nearly deserted, and quiet reigns supreme. It is always thus in Montenegro--such vivid contrasts that one is ever inclined to pinch oneself to obtain evidence that it is not a dream. And now...
