Battison, Assistant Secretary and Statistician of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, died at his home in Needham at the ripe age of seventy-eight years. Born in Amptill, Bedford County, England, he was brought, when a very young boy, to this country by his mother to join his father, a carpenter and worker in hard wood, who had been settled in Boston for a few years before their arrival. The son attended the Grammar schools of the city, and after spending two years in the High School, where he was awarded one of the highly prized Franklin medals for scholarship, became a bookkeeper for the Leatherbee Lumber Company. Marrying soon thereafter he left the company and sold lumber on commission, securing through his friend, Frank W. Williams, an assistant of Dr. John L. Hayes, desk room in the office of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, whose headquarters...

Reviews

I actually started looking over this publication. It really is rally interesting throgh studying period. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Dana Hintz

Good electronic book and valuable one. It really is basic but unexpected situations in the 50 percent in the pdf. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your time (that's what catalogues are for concerning when you ask me).
