Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Facts About Santo Domingo, Applicable to the Present Crisis: An Address, Delivered Before the American Geographical and Statistical Society at New York, April 3, 1862 Here he established the first white colony on this side of the Atlantic, introducing also horses, cattle, and domestic animals of all kinds, grain, seeds of various plants, vines, sugar-canes, and many European grafts and saplings. There was something wonderfully grand, says the historian, in the idea of thus introducing new races of animals and plants, of building cities, extending colonies, and sowing the seeds of civilization and of enlightened empire in this beautiful but savage world. It struck the minds of learned and classical men with admiration, filling them with pleasant dreams and reveries, and seeming to realize the poetical pictures of the olden time. Columbus, says old Peter Martyr, who describes so graphically events at this period, has begun to build a city, as he has lately written to me, and to sow our seeds and propagate our animals. Who of us shall now speak with wonder of...
