Some two thousand years later, much confusion still surrounds the term born again, though more people than ever people claim to have had the experience. In this Crucial Questions booklet, Dr. R. C. Sproul cuts through the confusion and carefully explains what it means, biblically and theologically, to be born again. He affirms, first of all, that Jesus wasn't kidding new birth is essential then goes on to show what the new birth is and how it occurs. His clear teaching will provide understanding for those who are unfamiliar with the new birth and deeper assurance for those who may not know where they stand with God. As a gifted communicator, R. C. Sproul has helped many believers grow in their understanding of such matters as the nature of God, the history of redemption, and the manner in which we are saved.
