Even at sea level it is cold at night and one is uncomfortable without a blanket. Always nature has her compensations. There are, in reality, four distinct climates and four distinct zones of largely differing appearance and production in the little Republic of Costa Rica which, by the way, is considerably more than twice the size of Switzerland and could comfortably support a population of 20,000,000. There is the moist semitropical climate of the Carribean coast region down which we were proceeding that morning. It is a region of sudden showers, great rainfall, and hot, moist climate broken by the trade winds, and cool breezes that come from the mountains or are tempered by the sea. For tropical glory and luxuriance, for amazing diversity in plant, insect, and bird life, this region is probably not surpassed in the world. There is the cool and pleasant, altogether charming climate of the...
