Excerpt: . . . 11 These are not easy or popular issues and I commend the President for his bold leadership, in stepping forward, issuing another kind of wake-up call, to focus the bright light of public attention on these issues. The Chairmanship of this Committee often is not an easy or popular job, so I also commend you for your leadership, Mr. Chairman. I agree with the President, and with my colleagues who also have come here today to talk about their bills, on many of the broad, key principles necessary for a lasting solution. Increased enforcement is part of the solution - but only part. In the last decade, we have tripled the number of agents securing our borders and enforcing our immigration laws. Worker identification checks have intensified. Formal removals have increased sixfold. However, the population of undocumented individuals living here has more than doubled. Consider, also,...
